

Timothy Schofield
Global Finance Leader
DuPont Photovoltaic & Advanced Materials

Tim has been with DuPont for 15 years. He has served as Global Finance Leader for the Photovoltaic and Advanced Materials business for the past 3 years.

Within DuPont businesses he has served in a variety of roles ranging from business analysis, strategic planning, sales, to R&D leadership.

He has also held a variety of corporate roles focused on shared services, corporate restructuring, and an assignment supporting investor relations.

Prior to joining DuPont, Mr. Schofield worked as a consultant for Accenture.

Mr. Schofield received his BA in Economics from Swarthmore College and his MBA from Carnegie Mellon University (Tepper School of Business).